

Four Myths about Science (Grades 3-5): Answer Sheet

Activity: use lines to connect the items below to the correct type of science:

Myth #2: we should always trust scientists

Activity: after watching the video, unscramble the words below to discover some of the factors that affect scientific research.

1. indfgnu: funding

2. eper surrespe: peer pressure

3. irepd: pride

4. plotciis: politics

5. skemiast: mistakes

6. wrdilwevo: worldview

Myth #3: scientists are always right

Activity: After watching the video, please fill in the blanks below.

- 1. Nebraska Man was an extinct pig
- 2. Neanderthal Man was fully human
- 3. This supposed missing link was really just a lemur: Ida
- 4. Ramapithecus was just an orangutan
- 5. There are over 450 million differences between human and chimpanzee DNA

Myth #4: real scientists do not believe in God

Activity: complete the crossword puzzle below

